

Lesson 0: The Vow and the Law of Agreements

I vow for the rest of my life to keep perfectly the law of agreements, which has three parts which I understand. I vow in front of this circle of friends, and I request, that if anyone who is witness to this vow ever sees me leave the purity of my vow, that they commit their life force as much as and as long as necessary to struggle with me until they bring me back to the purity of my vow.

LAW OF AGREEMENTS

THREE PARTS

1. If I make an agreement with someone else, I am bound to give my body, speech, mind, heart, and spirit to keep that agreement until death.
2. If I feel I am unable to keep the agreement for any reason, I will go sit with that person, present my case, and ask to be released. If it is agreed, I am free of it and the agreement goes back to its source. If the other party does not agree, then I must agree to work it out with that person ,at specific times and places, to resolve the dispute until a new ,satisfactory agreement is reached.
3. If we are unable to come to a resolution of the dispute, I am bound to go to war with that person full of the principles of Truth and Love under the guidance of a Beloved until one side subjects the other. At that time, the victor will determine the course of the agreement for the next period of time. The Beloved is someone acknowledged or created so by both parties. If you're not laughing at yourselves by this time you might need a heart transplant.

I understand and I agree
